
Welcome to the November news bulletin from the Dublin City PPN.

NEW REPS ELECTED:

The following Reps were recently elected to the following committees:

Transport Strategic Policy Committee:

Martin Hoey, Finglas South Combined Residents Association

Arts & Culture Strategic Policy Committee:

Sarah O' Neill, Crosbie's Yard Residents Association

Smart Dublin Advisory Network:

Jeffrey Roe, TOG

PPN Secretariat:

Dean Burke, Belvedere Youth Club

North West Joint Policing Committee:

Cabra Seat - Triona O' Sullivan, Dublin North West Area Partnership

Finglas Seat - Martin Hoey, Finglas South Combined Residents Association

THE TOWN I LOVED SO WELL....

COMMUNITY REP NEEDED FOR LUKE KELLY STATUE WORKING GROUP

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

Do you like Luke Kelly?

Would you like to see a Sculpture of him in the City?

City Arts Officer Ray Yeates is looking for a community representative to join a small working group which also consists of 2 councillors, 2 representatives from the Arts Office and the Director of Butler Gallery. If you are interested in being the community representative on this group or if you would like further information please email ppn@dublincity.ie by Friday 2nd December

Romania's National Day

Celebrate Romanian culture, traditions and taste their diverse cuisine this Sunday 4th December from 12-6pm at the F2 Centre in Rialto. Please see poster attached for more details.

Remembering the Tenements Day

Sat 10th December 10-3.30pm
Woodquay Venue

Do you have memories of growing up in Dublin Tenements?

Have you any items from this time?

Please come along and bring any items from the time and share your memory or story.

Tea Coffee and Biscuits provided!

For more information: Email 14henriettastreet@dublincity.ie or call 01-2223090

Digital Skills for Citizens Grant Scheme

New Grant available to provide citizens with the confidence, motivation and skills to reap the benefits of today's digital world.

Closing date for applications is 5pm on 12th December

Full details about the scheme can be found at www.dccae.gov.ie.